

Our New Life in the US
by Y Nhui Dong

We were born in Vietnam. We came to the US a couple of months ago. During the first time, we had to face a lot of difficulties concerning all areas of life. Fortunately my father found out about Refugee Transitions via an Ad in a hospital.

Refugee Transitions staffs are doing a great job and are very nice. I think we are very lucky because we have the love from the staff and the tutors. We receive a lot of help and they are really working professionally.

Our parents cannot speak English. And for my father has had two surgeries, he was not strong enough to go to ESL classes. Refugee Transitions send a tutor who comes to teach my parents at home. They also help us a lot with their Family Support Service. When you arrive newly in a foreign country, it is difficult to understand the social system here. With out Refugee Transitions, our new life in the US would have been much harder to solve. We really do appreciate the Refugee Transitions. Thank you very much to Jeanne Mellett and Connie Truong again.
